

The Netherlands Packaging Centre (NVC) is the only association in The Netherlands that addresses packaging in an integral manner.

Member companies can range from raw material manufacturer up to retailer and from branded goods manufacturer to packaging equipment supplier. The NVC is leading in education and training, proactive information services and in promoting the innovative and sustainable (people, planet, profit) packaging of products.

The advantages of a NVC-membership

The Netherlands Packaging Centre (NVC) is the only association in the Netherlands addressing the integral supply chain of packaged products.

The NVC is leading in education and training, proactive information services and in promoting the innovative and sustainable (people, planet, profit) packaging of products. With over 500 business members, varying from one-man companies to multinationals, and representing all links in the packaging chain, the NVC holds a central position. The general interest of packaging comes first in all activities, the NVC looks after the interests of its member-companies.

The NVC deals with the diversity of packaging aspects in cooperation with other trade organisations, authorities, social and environmental organisations, and naturally, its members.

Interested in becoming a NVC-member?

Is your company active on the Dutch market or are you exploring the possibilities to do so, than your company can benefit from a NVC-membership.

The NVC-membership offers several advantages:

- Access to a unique network of more than thirteen thousand people and more than five hundred member companies.
- Information on the (Dutch) packaging market
- Monthly NVC digital newsletter with information searched and selected worldwide on developments in the packaging of products;
- Every question related to packaging by your employees is handled personally and with great care;
- Your company is easily found as a supplier via the unique NVC digital buyers guide at the NVC-website and in the printed version. This guide is now expanded to a European level via EPIC;
- Your product- or marketing innovations are regularly published on our homepage with a link to your own website;
- Multiple membership discounts (publications etc).

Join us!

For more than fifty years, the NVC is the driving force within the entire 'packaging chain'. We are committed to fulfill this role enthusiastically and innovatively also for the coming years. This can only be achieved with the help of our company-members. Are you interested in a membership for your company?
